Presentation-
A plaque was presented by the Township Committee to Mayor Jayme Ouellette for her dedication and service over the years to the Township of Rochelle Park. Deputy Mayor Kazimir commented that Mayor Ouellette moved here from Buffalo, New York and immediately began her service to the Township by becoming a member of the Republican Club, coaching recreational sports and running for a spot on the Township Committee. He thanked her for her continued dedication to the residents and advised that she will be a member of the Recreation Committee in 2016. Mayor Ouellette thanked the members of the Township Committee and the residents for their support over the years. She commented that she looks forward to being a member of the Township Committee again in the future.

A motion was offered by Comm. Valenzuela and seconded by Comm. Kovalcik to open the meeting to the public.
