(12)

Garage sale signs, subject to the following provisions:

(a)

In connection with an impending garage sale, two signs of not more than four square feet each shall be permitted to be displayed on the property of the residence where the garage sale is being conducted.

(b)

Two signs of not more than two square feet each are permitted, provided that the premises upon which the garage sale is conducted is not a major thoroughfare and written permission to erect said signs is received from the property owner upon whose property such signs are to be placed.

(c)

No sign or other form of advertisement shall be exhibited for more than two days prior to the day such sale is to commence.

(d)

Signs must be removed each day at the close of the garage sale activities or by the end of daylight, whichever occurs first.

(e)

These regulations shall apply to other similar casual sales of tangible personal property (such as attic sales and rummage sales) which are advertised so the public at large is aware of the sale.

(f)

No such signs shall be placed on telephone poles, street signs, light poles or trees.

(g)

All such signs shall be located at least 15 feet from the property line.
