NOTICE OF EMPLOYMENT

Camp Counselors (15+w/working papers and/or Alternate Counselors (15+ w/working papers)

Candidate(s) – Are you looking to have fun in the sun while making a child’s summer memorable? Have you worked with children in some capacity or hope to do so in the future? Do you possess the traits below?

If so, consider applying to be a counselor this summer!

Necessary Traits of a Rochelle Park Summer Day Camp Counselor

- Reliable – Punctual, follows through on tasks, and ready to work daily
- Positive and helpful – shows initiative, makes his/herself useful, displays enthusiasm and genuine interest, gets involved in activities with the children, takes job seriously but not themselves (does not mind getting goofy), acts as a teammate, presents his. Herself on online social forums (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, etc.) in a manner that is socially appropriate and would not be offensive to children and families of children attending.
- Communicates effectively – understands the difference between constructive criticism and griping, cares about outward appearance, knows when to speak up and knows when to listen.
- Altruistic and goal orientated – good work ethic – puts ego aside for the common good of the children and the program (remember this job is about the children)

If you are 15 or older (w/working papers) at the start of camp season, June 30, 2025, have a desire to leave an impact on the lives of children, and possess or know that you can learn the above-mentioned traits, WE WANT YOU!

Camp runs 8 weeks – Monday, June 30, 2025 through Friday, August 22, 2025 between the hours of 8:30am to 4:30pm

Please include resume/letter of interest to Recreation@rochelleparknj.gov –
